29 April 2017 (Saturday)
9:30 am – 12:30 pm
N003 (Lim Por Yen Lecture Theatre),
Block N, PolyU

The Belt and Road Initiative of China focuses on improving and creating new trade routes and business opportunities with over sixty countries. Transport and logistics are its integral components. Many in Hong Kong want to avail themselves of the opportunities presented by the Belt and Road Initiative; some have been positioning themselves accordingly. This seminar invites speakers to address issues related to in the context of the Belt and Road initiative based on their own experience, and the implications for Hong Kong. A special session on an initiative introduced by the HK SAR Government to assist local SMEs in related endeavours is also prepared.
