

October 26, 2018

Open Forum on Hong Kong International Shipping Center & Book Donation

The forum was hosted by Dr. Meifeng Luo, the Centre Director, with Mr. Gilbert Feng, the Deputy Director of Hong Kong Shipowners Association, as the guest speaker. In the first part of the seminar, Mr. Feng talked about the experiences and current status on the development of Hong Kong as an international shipping center, the free-port development in the Mainland China, and the role of Hong Kong as well as the Hong Kong Shipowners Association. In the second part, Dr. Luo introduced the history and development of the Free Port in Hong Kong, as well as the contribution of economic and financial freedom to Hong Kong economy and global competitiveness in history.